Course Information:

Catalog Description

This course correlates academic coursework with required community service and provides reflection opportunities that examine community needs, the importance of civic engagement, and the effects of social injustices affecting ethnic minorities and marginalized populations in contemporary American society. Students dedicate 100 hours at a pre-approved site (including Title I K-12 schools, youth programs, health services, social services, etc.) directly serving a population in need or supporting activities that contribute to the greater good of our community. A weekly seminar, course readings, discussions, and reflection assignments facilitate critical thinking and a deeper understanding of cultural diversity, citizenship, how to contribute to positive social change in our community. The course provides “real-world” experiences that exercise academic skills and knowledge applicable to each student’s program of study and career goals. Prerequisite with a grade of C or higher: 45 hours earned and ENG 102

This is a study abroad version of USL 410 in which students will examine social issues and provide service in communities in our host country as well as complete a comparison of civic engagement and community issues in our host country and the United States of America

Note: ASU offers course credit for the weekly class participation and academic assignments, not for the community service. To earn a passing grade in this class, it is crucial to complete all academic coursework to the best of your ability as well as complete your service hours. Because the service is a crucial basis for the class and coursework, the service is mandatory.

STUDY ABROAD COMPONENT

This course is a unique GIE Study Abroad Class. All students participating in this class will travel for 18 days to Costa Rica at the conclusion of the B session course. Therefore, each student must complete an application and be accepted into the program through the Study Abroad Office.

COMMUNITY SERVICE HOURS

Each student must complete regular community service hours throughout the semester. Students will use their service experience to gain experience while making connections to class discussions, reflection assignments, and the area of their major and career goals. Guidelines for service hours include:

- Service in Costa Rica - Students will complete 21 hours per week of service (total of 64 hours) while traveling in Costa Rica together. The service projects planned include serving 2 communities:
 - In Montserrat – service includes tasks such as teaching English to the community, helping to fix community roads, repairing a bio-digester, and repairing the greenhouse at the local school
 - At Asis Wildlife Rescue – service includes tasks such as maintaining trails, animal care, advocacy on environmental issues and helping at the local school.
- Service in Arizona – Students will complete approximately 4.5 hours per week (total of 36 hours) at one of USL certified organizations. Students will be provided a limited number of organizations and a list of days & times available to serve between the 2nd week of class and finals week.
 - Students must complete at least 36 hours during that 9 week period.
 - Students must sign up for hours and log their time according to the instructions on Blackboard.
 - It is each student’s responsibility to ensure that they complete the full 36 hours of local hours.
- One timecard must be submitted for week of service via Blackboard.
 - Timecards are due each week on Sunday by 11:59 PM.
 - For weeks that no service was completed, students must submit a Zero-hour timecards to notify your instructor of the reasons why service was not completed.
- Students should complete 60% of their service hours completing direct service hours, working directly with the service population. (See the student handbook for details of direct vs indirect hours.)

If you need help matching with a Community Service Placement or if at any time in the semester that you have concerns or need assistance in regards to your service hours, please contact the USL Coordinator at 480-965-8261.

COURSE/INSTRUCTOR EVALUATION

The course/instructor evaluation for this course will be conducted online 7-10 days before the last official day of classes of each semester or summer session. Response(s) to the course/instructor are anonymous and will not be returned to your instructor until after grades have been submitted. The use of a course/instructor evaluation is an important process that allows our college to (1) help faculty improve their instruction, (2) help administrators evaluate instructional quality, (3) ensure high standards of teaching, and (4) ultimately improve instruction and student learning over time. Completion of the evaluation is not required for you to pass this class and will not affect your grade, but your cooperation and participation in this process is critical. About two weeks before the class finishes, watch for an e-mail with "ASU Course/Instructor Evaluation" in the subject heading. The email will be sent to your official ASU e-mail address, so make sure ASU has your current email address on file. You can check this online at the following URL:

<http://www.asu.edu/emailsSignup>.

UNIVERSITY/MARY LOU FULTON TEACHERS COLLEGE POLICIES

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

Attendance and active participation is vital to each student's success in every USL class. Regular weekly attendance is expected & required. As the class only meets once per week, a significant amount of information is covered during each class period. Missing class will cause students to fall behind. For this reason, the following attendance policies will be enforced with no exceptions:

- For every 2nd absence from class, your FINAL grade will be dropped one letter grade.
 - To submit an absence for review to be considered excused status by your instructor, you must:
 - Complete an EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCE FORM (found on BB in the Course Information/Forms folder) & submit via email to your instructor prior to an absence or within one week for an emergency absence.
 - Documentation for the absence must be submitted to the instructor within ONE week of the absence
- *Requests failed to be submitted in this form CANNOT be considered for excused absence status.
*Extenuating Circumstance Forms will be approved at the discretion of the instructor.
- Tardiness to class or leaving class early will result in lost participation points for the equivalent to the amount of class time missed.
 - Each student is expected to sign in prior to class beginning. Anyone who signs in after class begins will be marked late and deducted class points. Note: Students are not permitted to sign in for others or ask others to sign in for them. This violates the University's Academic Integrity Policy and will be treated as such.
 - Everyone is expected to participate in class discussions.

LATE AND MISSING ASSIGNMENTS

- Late assignments will lose 10% per day and will not be accepted more than 5 days late.
- Due to the General Studies Literacy requirements, for every 3rd academic assignment (Pre/Post Service Reflection, Critical Reflections, Final Research Paper and Class Presentation) that is not submitted, your final grade will be dropped one letter grade.
- To request an extension on an assignment, please submit an extenuating circumstance with documentation as described in the attendance section above. However, it must be submitted prior to the assignment deadline.
- All assignments must be submitted through BB in Microsoft Word. Assignments not submitted in this format will NOT be accepted and will be considered late assignments. (Timecards will be submitted on My USL)
- Assignments without a name listed in the top right or left corner of the first page will be deducted 10-20% of the assigned grade.
- All assignments must be original work completed by each student for this class for this semester. Students who submit the work of others, text copied from other sources or their own work that has been submitted for other classes or previous semesters are subject to the University's Academic Integrity Policy.

EXPECTATIONS OF WRITING SKILLS ON ASSIGNMENTS

As this is a General Studies – Literacy (L) class, all students will have the opportunity to exercise and improve effective writing skills.

- All writing assignments must be original work completed THIS semester for THIS class.
- Practice collegiate level writing at all times including thoughtful structure, proper grammar/punctuation, and edit for content and errors.
- Directly answer each prompt question.
- Thoroughly support all statements with supporting evidence from text, class lectures, personal experiences and service experiences.

CELL PHONE & LAPTOP POLICY

Cell phone usage is not permitted during class or service hours. Laptop usage is permitted during class for note-taking or research of class topics ONLY. Violation of this policy will result in loss of participation points.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY/PLAGIARISM

The ASU Student Handbook contains the following information: “The highest standards of academic integrity are expected of all students. The failure of any student to meet these standards may result in suspension or expulsion from the university and/or other sanctions as specified in the academic integrity policies of the individual academic unit. Violations of academic integrity include, but are not limited to, cheating, fabricating, tampering, plagiarizing, or facilitating such activities. The university and unit academic integrity policies are available from the Office of the Executive Vice President and Provost of the University and from the Deans of the individual academic units.”

The rest of the code, which consists of several pages, is available at the following URL:

<http://students.asu.edu/srr/code>.

Dependent upon instructor’s discretion, penalties for plagiarism range from loss of points on plagiarized assignment to student receiving an ‘E’ for the course.

ACCOMMODATION FOR RELIGIOUS PRACTICES

Students who need to be absent from class due to the observance of a religious holiday or participate in required religious functions must notify the faculty member in writing as far in advance of the holiday/obligation as possible. Students will need to identify the specific holiday or obligatory function to the faculty member. Students will not be penalized for missing class due to religious obligations/holiday observance. The student should contact the class instructor to make arrangements for making up tests/assignments within a reasonable time. <http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd304-04.html>

ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION

Acceptable use of university computers, internet and electronic communications can be found in the Student Code of Conduct (<http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/usi/usi104-01.html>) and in the University’s Computer, Internet, and Electronic Communications Policy (<http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd125.html>).

GRADE APPEALS

The professional responsibility for assigning grades is vested in the instructor of the course, and requires the careful application of professional judgment. A student wishing to appeal a grade must first meet with the instructor who assigned the grade to try to resolve the dispute. The process for grade appeals is set forth for the undergraduate and graduate programs are available at <https://education.asu.edu/student-forms-policies>

HANDLING DISRUPTIVE, THREATENING, OR VIOLENT INDIVIDUALS ON CAMPUS

Students, faculty, staff, and other individuals do not have an unqualified right of access to university grounds, property, or services. Interfering with the peaceful conduct of university-related business or activities or remaining on campus grounds after a request to leave may be considered a crime.

All incidents and allegations of violent or threatening conduct by an ASU student (whether on- or off-campus) must be reported to the ASU Police Department (ASU PD) and the Office of the Dean of Students. If either office determines that the behavior poses or has posed a serious threat to personal safety or to the welfare of the campus, the student will not be permitted to return to campus or reside in any ASU residence hall until an appropriate threat assessment has been completed and, if necessary, conditions for return are imposed. ASU PD, the Office of the Dean of Students, and other appropriate offices will coordinate the assessment in light of the relevant circumstances. <http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/ssm/ssm104-02.html>.

HARASSMENT PROHIBITED

ASU policy prohibits harassment on the basis of race, sex, gender identity, age, religion, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, Vietnam era veteran status and other protected veteran status. Violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employees or expulsion of students. Contact Student Life (Downtown campus- 522 N. Central Ave., Post Office Room 247, 480-496-4111; Polytechnic campus- Administration building suite 102, 480-727-1060; Tempe campus- Student Services Building room 263, 480-965-6547; or the West campus- UCB 301, 602-543-8152) if you feel another student is harassing you based on any of the factors above. Contact Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action (EO/AA) at 480-965-5057 if you feel an ASU employee is harassing you based on any of the factors above.

<http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd401.html>.

MILITARY PERSONNEL STATEMENT

A student who is a member of the National Guard, Reserve, or other U.S. Armed Forces branch and is unable to complete classes because of military activation may request a complete or partial administrative unrestricted withdrawal or incomplete depending on the timing of the activation. For information, please see <http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/usi/usi201-18.html>.

MISSED CLASSES DUE TO UNIVERSITY-SANCTIONED ACTIVITIES

Students who participate in university-sanctioned activities that require classes to be missed, should be given opportunities to make up examinations and other graded in-class work. However, absence from class or examinations due to university-sanctioned activities does not relieve students from responsibility for any part of the course work required during the period of the absence. The student should contact the class instructor to make arrangements for making up tests/assignments within a reasonable time.

The specific activity program coordinator (e.g., assistant athletics director for academic services, director of forensics, director of bands) should, as early as possible, provide the college-designated individual with the class schedule of any student who may be required to miss class because of a university-sanctioned activity.

Students should inform their instructors early in the semester of required class absences. Instructors should attempt to provide opportunities for equivalent work, either before or after the class absence, in accordance with any academic unit or college requirements, which may apply.

<http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd304-02.html>

PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOR

It is expected that students exhibit professional behavior inside the classroom, during intern placements, and working with other students outside of the class on assignments related to this class in addition to behavior in the classroom on ASU's campus. If at any time your behavior is 'unprofessional', the instructor may refer the student to the Director of the Office of Student Services (OSS) for the development of a Professional Improvement Plan (PIP). <https://education.asu.edu/student-forms-policies>.

TITLE IX

Title IX is a federal law that provides that no person be excluded on the basis of sex from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity. Both Title IX and university policy make clear that sexual violence and harassment based on sex is prohibited. An individual who believes they have been subjected to sexual violence or harassed on the basis of sex can seek support, including counseling and academic support, from the university. If you or someone you know has been harassed on the basis of sex or sexually assaulted, you can find information and resources at

<http://sexualviolenceprevention.asu.edu/faqs/students>

UNIVERSITY SERVICES

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS

Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College is committed to student success and ensures an inclusive learning environment for all students. Students with disabilities or disabling health conditions who need accommodations are required to document their condition with the Disability Resource Center <https://eoss.asu.edu/drc>. The Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College encourages admitted students with disabilities or disabling health conditions who believe that they may need an accommodation to register with the DRC prior to enrolling in the program. That way, all reasonable accommodations can be in place at the beginning of the program. Students who are registered with DRC will be key participants in establishing reasonable and appropriate accommodations with course instructors.

SI (SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION)

SI seeks to help students process material presented in class through group facilitated discussion led by a trained peer (SI Leader) who has already successfully completed the course. More information will be available on Blackboard under the SI Study Group. Students can receive tutoring for various courses through University Academic Success Programs (UASP). Refer to our website: <https://tutoring.asu.edu>.

TECHNOLOGICAL SERVICES AND SUPPORT

The Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College encourages students to make use of technological services available through ASU to make their learning experience more efficient. Students with personal laptop computers or netbooks can connect wirelessly to the Internet and to printing services on all four campuses and some school sites. The following support services are available to support student computing needs.

Student Purchases:

Discounted pricing for students purchasing laptop or desktop computers is available at through the ASU bookstore or online. (<http://www.bkstr.com/arizonastatestore/shop/technology>)

ASU Campus Classroom Connectivity:

In-class use of laptops is encouraged by the Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College. In cases where students need to make presentations during class, most classrooms have the capability of allowing laptops to connect to classroom projectors. Mac laptops may require an adaptor. For collaborative work, social networking tools are provided to ASU students through a Google partnership, including Google docs, spreadsheets, presentations, forms, and sites. (<https://docs.google.com/a/asu.edu/#all>)

Hardware and Software Support:

ASU 1:1 Technology Studios provide support to students on all four campuses for hardware, software, operating systems, security, networking, etc. (<https://ucc.asu.edu/techstudio/>)

MyApps provides free software tools including free virus scan software, online applications, and information about discounted software for purchase. (<https://webapp3.asu.edu/myapps/>)

TUTORING

Tutoring is available on all ASU campuses and Online for a variety of courses in small groups on a walk-in/drop-in basis. Appointments are not taken. For a full list of sites and courses, visit <https://tutoring.asu.edu>.

WRITING CENTERS

One Center, Many Places: The Writing Center, located on all four ASU campuses and online, offers free tutoring for all enrolled students. All writers—all ASU undergraduate or graduate students—can benefit from visiting the Writing Center to:

- explore, plan, and develop ideas;
- organize and structure a paper;
- integrate and cite sources; and
- write, revise, edit, and proofread.

For more information about ASU's Writing Centers, including how to make an appointment, please visit our website at <https://tutoring.asu.edu/writing-centers>.
